Renewals: The Southern Illinois Continuum of Care is currently accepting HUD CoC renewal grants from projects that submitted a letter of intent in March, 2018. The deadline to submit renewal applications with supporting documentation for the ranking and review process is August 17, 2018. Project applications must be submitted through esnaps and supporting documentation should be submitted to: Camille Dorris at 801 N. Market St, Marion, IL 62959 by that same date. For information about the amount of funding available for renewal projects, contact Camille Dorris, CoC President or Linda Bookwalter, Collaborative Agent.

New Projects: New projects are also being accepted that meet the local CoC's priorities and fall into the following three HUD categories:

- Reallocation of funding for renewal projects or
- Bonus funding or
- Domestic Violence Bonus funding.
- Projects may also apply for a combination of reallocation and bonus funding.

For information about the amount of funding available for new projects and whether they fall into the CoC's priorities, contact Camille Dorris, CoC President or Linda Bookwalter, Collaborative Agent. Requirements, eligibility, amounts and processes differ among the types of funding, so potential applicants should familiarize themselves thoroughly before applying. The deadline to submit new applications with supporting documentation for the ranking and review process is August 17, 2018. Project applications must be submitted through esnaps and supporting documentation should be submitted to: Camille Dorris at 801 N. Market St, Marion, IL 62959.

Ranking and Review Process: All projects (renewal, reallocated, bonus and DV Bonus) who submitted their project applications to the CoC by the established deadline will be reviewed and ranked by the Ranking and Review Committee. Project applicants will be notified of their status which could include their ranking on the CoC Priority Listing; project rejection or reduction by August 31, 2018. Where a project application is being rejected or reduced, the CoC will indicate the reason(s) for the rejection or reduction in writing 15 days before the CoC deadline of September 18, 2018.

NOFA Deadline: CoC deadline to apply: September 18, 2018
